The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or witness or is threatened to be made a party or witness to any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person (i) is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or (ii) while a director or officer of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner or trustee (or in a similar capacity) of another Corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, to the fullest extent authorized by the Iowa Nonprofit Corporation Act and any other applicable law, as the same exist or may hereafter be amended or changed (but, in the case of any such amendment or change, only to the extent that such amendment or change authorizes the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law authorized the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment or change), against reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such claim, action, suit or proceeding or any appeal thereof; provided, however, entitlement to such indemnification shall be conditional upon the Corporation being afforded the opportunity to participate directly on behalf of such person in such claim, action, suit or proceeding or any settlement discussions relating thereto, and with respect to any compromise settlement or other non-adjudicated disposition of any threatened, or pending claim, action, suit or proceeding, entitlement to indemnification shall be further conditioned upon the requirement that the Corporation shall have given its prior written consent to such compromise settlement or disposition. Approval or disapproval of any proposed compromise settlement or disposition by the Corporation shall not subject the Corporation to any liability nor require indemnification or reimbursement of any party whom the Corporation would not otherwise have been required to indemnify or reimburse.

The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall include the right to payment by the Corporation of expenses incurred in connection with any such claim, action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that the payment of such expenses incurred by the director or officer in advance of the final disposition of such claim, action, suit or proceeding shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of a written undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article or otherwise, along with a written affirmation by such director or officer of such person's good faith belief that such person has met the applicable standard of conduct necessary to permit indemnification by the Corporation pursuant to this Article or otherwise.

Except as to proceedings by or in the right of the Corporation against a person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, member vote or disinterested directors or officers, or otherwise, both as to action in an official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office; provided, however, that in no event shall the Corporation provide indemnification for a breach of a director's or officer's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its member (s), for acts or omissions of a director or officer not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, or for a transaction from which the director or officer derives an improper personal benefit.

This Article shall be applicable to all claims, actions, suits or proceedings commenced after the effective date hereof, whether arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after the approval hereof by the member(s) of the Corporation. The right of indemnification provided for in this Article shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be director or officer, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators and legal or person representatives of such a person. If this Article or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Corporation shall nevertheless indemnify each director and officer of the Corporation as to reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement with respect to any claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including, without limitation, a grand jury proceeding and any claim, action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation, to the fullest extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Article that shall not have been invalidated, by the Iowa Nonprofit Corporation Act or any other applicable law.

Notwithstanding anything in this Article to the contrary, except with respect to proceedings initiated by a director or officer of the Corporation to enforce rights of indemnification to which such person is entitled under this Article or otherwise, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person in connection with a claim, action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if the initiation of such claim, action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
